Peak Advantage® Roofing Contractor Training Workshops

JM Roofing Institute™ – Better Roofing Through Education

Johns Manville wants to provide the most value possible to our customers and contractors. To help accomplish that, we have developed an education and development initiative that builds on our 150 years of experience in low-slope commercial/industrial roofing. Under the umbrella of the JM Roofing Institute, we created a program to build on the strength of JM's experience and knowledge to meet the specific needs of our customers.

The Better Understanding of Roofing Systems Institute (BURSI®) has focused on educating architects, consultants, roofing contractors and building owners on the materials, technology and design of roofing systems. In 35 years, more than 50,000 roofing professionals have been educated through the BURSI curriculum.

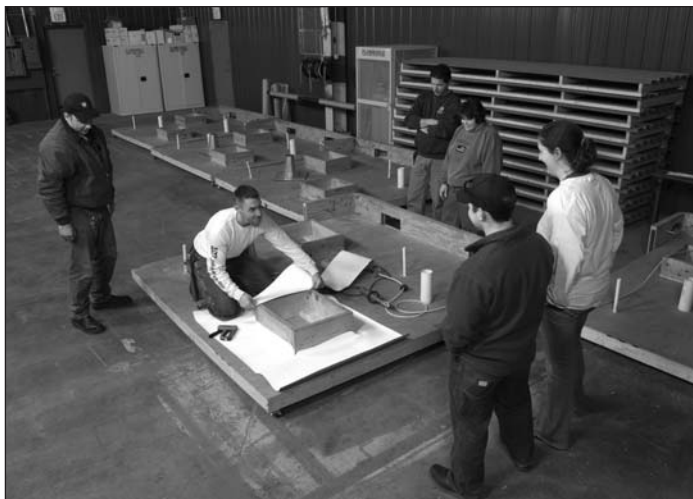

JM highly recommends these workshops for your superintendents and crew leaders. They can then give on-site training to your crews and other employees, and quickly multiply the benefit of their experience.
